Take The Challenge

Signing up to the challenge is the easy part. Not using any jargon or acronyms every Friday is the hard part.

1. Simply register for the challenge with your name and a few other details at:
www.jargonfreefridays.com
2. Choose your own consequence if you falter. Some have been suggested for you but you can add your own.
3. Share your challenge with your peers and on social media to make yourself accountable.
4. Share on your social media sites and nominate someone else for the challenge.
5. Download the Jargon Free Friday Game Kit to host at your next meeting!

Instructions

1. Use the examples included in this pack to share with your team.
2. Each Friday, choose your own consequence if you falter. Some have been suggested for you but you can add your own.
3. Share your challenge with your peers and on social media to make yourself accountable.
4. Share on your social media sites and nominate someone else for the challenge.
5. Use the purple card as a warning/reminder for someone who uses jargon or an acronym.
6. Use the red card when someone needs to pay the price!
